

Open Government Partnership Global Summit

Key points

The Open Government Partnership (OGP) was created in 2011 and now includes 70 countries and many non-governmental organizations that cooperate to promote:

- transparency of government activities
- citizen participation in the drafting of public policies
- accountability of public actors
- use of digital solutions to achieve these goals and stimulate democratic innovation