Equality: a vanguard force of post-crisis reconstruction and sustainable change

From victims to leaders

We are experiencing a crisis but also a UNIQUE OPPORTUNITY to take a decisive step forward

The Covid crisis has dramatically revealed exposed and increased inequalities. REBUILDING a sustainable, stable and fair future calls for a radical change of mindset regarding gender equality

- CHANGING STATUS OF WOMEN, from victims to leaders, is the key issue of sustainable development
- EQUALITY OF RIGHTS is the world's most important transformative force

Remarkable and EFFECTIVE PROGRESSES have been made by STATES to combat discriminations, yet progress is stalling

WE HAVE TO GO BEYOND

- to ensure adopt a systemic gender-responsive approach to the post-crisis recovery
- to meet all the current challenges such as poverty, migrations, climate, organic food ,artificial intelligence, demography... For example: April 2020, I supported the first GLOBAL CHARTER on INCLUSIVE ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE initiated by Arborus NGO, with the support of Orange Group .

WE HAVE TO GO FORWARD BY ACCELERATING

- The effective implementation of the CEDAW CONVENTION and the éradication of all discriminations
- The full respect of rights and equality as LEADING FORCE OF CHANGE
- The POLITICAL LEADERSHIP AND ECONOMIC EMPOWERMENT of women and their access and full and effective participation to policy-making
- The achievement of the REFORM of TREATY BODIES in order to reach a greater efficiency and closest cooperation with the State Parties

Dedicated to the implementation of SDGs and the Beijing+25 anniversary with the GENERATION EQUALITY FORUM organized with FRANCE AND MEXICO, and UN Women, I want to make this vision a reality for YOUNG GENERATIONS and a PROGRESS FOR HUMANITY.
