

Emergency Humanitarian Fund

---

The French Foreign Ministry's Crisis Centre (CDC) provides emergency aid in cash or kind, through its Emergency Humanitarian Fund (FUH). In this connection, it supports NGOs by financing their projects and maintaining a regular dialogue with them. (Figures not given for food aid and multilateral assistance.)

Amount of the Emergency Humanitarian Fund (FUH)

€14,448,830 in 2015

€11,939,634 in 2013

€14,820,762 in 2014

Impact of major crises on the Fund

66% of the Fund's budget was allocated to the Middle East in 2015 in order to address the major humanitarian emergencies that continue in the region: the Syrian and Iraqi crises, and large-scale destruction in the Palestinian Territories.

Palestinian Territories: 3%

Lake Chad: 9%

Syrian crisis: 36%

Iraqi crisis: 27%

Central African Republic: 8%

Other crises: 17%

Geographical distribution of the Fund's expenditure

Continental Europe: 6%

Non-geographical: 1%

Middle East and North Africa: 66%

Asia and Oceania: 7%

Africa and the Indian Ocean: 20%