174/2025

NOTE VERBALE

The OSCE Office for Democratic Institutions and Human Rights (ODIHR) presents its compliments to the Foreign Ministries and Delegations of the OSCE participating States and has the honour to state the following:

Following an official invitation to observe the parliamentary elections in the Republic of Moldova to be held on 28 September 2025, and in accordance with its mandate, ODIHR is preparing to deploy an Election Observation Mission (EOM). The ODIHR EOM is planning to commence its activities in Chişinău on 13 August 2025.

ODIHR relies upon the co-operation of participating States in seconding 28 long-term observers (LTOs). LTOs would be expected to arrive in Chişinău on 20 August 2025. A briefing session is planned for 21 August, after which the LTOs will be deployed to their observation areas on 22 August. The LTOs should plan to remain in the country until 4 October 2025.

The attached information sheet provides further details. The involvement of LTOs will permit observation of the administrative preparations for the election, the campaign, adjudication of complaints, and the media.

In addition, ODIHR is planning to request the secondment of 200 short-term observers (STOs) for election day observation. A separate Information Sheet for STOs will be issued in this regard.

In the interest of a broad and balanced representation among participating States in election observation activities, ODIHR requests that any individual participating State nominates only up to 15 per cent of the total number of observers requested.

To ensure a better gender balance in its activities, ODIHR strongly encourages the OSCE participating States to second equal numbers of women and men as long-term observers.

The OSCE Office for Democratic Institutions and Human Rights avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Foreign Ministries and Delegations of the OSCE participating States the assurances of its highest consideration.

Warsaw, 26 June 2025

and Delegations of the OSCE participating States
