55/2025

NOTE VERBALE

The OSCE Office for Democratic Institutions and Human Rights (ODIHR) presents its compliments to the Foreign Ministries and Delegations of the OSCE participating States and has the honour to state the following:

Following an official invitation to observe the presidential election in Romania to be held on 4 May 2025, and in line with its mandate, ODIHR is preparing to deploy a Limited Election Observation Mission (LEOM). This decision and the format of the observation mission is based on the findings and conclusions of the Needs Assessment Mission conducted from 15 to 19 April 2024, as confirmed by a supplementary visit held on 4 and 5 March 2025. The ODIHR LEOM plans to commence its activities in Bucharest on 24 March.

ODIHR relies upon the co-operation of participating States in seconding 24 long-term observers (LTOs). LTOs would be expected to arrive in Bucharest on 31 March. A briefing session is planned for 1 April after which the LTOs will be deployed to their observation areas on 2 April. The LTOs should plan to remain in the country until 9 May (in case of one round) and 23 May (in case of a second round).

The attached information sheet provides further details. The involvement of LTOs will permit observation of the administrative preparations for the elections, the campaign, election dispute resolution, and the media.

In the interest of a broad and balanced representation among participating States in election observation activities, ODIHR requests that any individual participating State nominates only up to 15 per cent of the total number of observers requested.

To ensure a better gender balance in its activities, ODIHR strongly encourages the OSCE participating States to second equal numbers of women and men as long-term observers.

The OSCE Office for Democratic Institutions and Human Rights avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Foreign Ministries and Delegations of the OSCE participating States the assurances of its highest consideration.

2. REGISTRATION AND ACCREDITATION PROCESS

All OSCE participating States considering secondment are requested to inform ODIHR on the number of LTOs (to the attention of Sylwia Zwolinska or Anna Krzysztofik; e-mail: sylwia.zwolinska@odihr.pl, anna.krzysztofik@odihr.pl) no later than 14 March 2025.

To be nominated by the Seconding States, LTOs are required to create a personal account in the Election Expert Database, fully complete their profile, and share it with their national focal point. The Seconding States are requested to submit the names of proposed LTOs using the Election Expert Database as soon as possible and no later than 14 March 2025, 16:00 (Warsaw Time).

After the nomination deadline, ODIHR will consider the overall number of nominations received and confirm the final numbers it is in a position to receive from each seconding State and, subsequently, enable the focal point to proceed with the on-line registration.

For the purposes of accreditation of LTOs with the Permanent Electoral Authority of Romania, the online mission registration form must be completed and supporting documents attached by the end of 20 March 2025.

3. INSURANCE

The seconding States should secure for their observers any insurance coverage, including adequate health, accident/disability and life insurance, as it will not be provided by ODIHR. The observers should have a copy of their insurance policy with them.

Each LTO team will be equipped by ODIHR with a laptop and mobile phones. LTOs may choose to bring their personal laptop and a mobile phone. It should be noted, however, that ODIHR cannot take any responsibility for the observers' personal belongings, including computers and mobile phones, in case of theft or any other incident. The seconding States may consider insuring personal belongings of observers.

4. VISAS

Visas, if required, should be arranged with the Embassy/Consulate of Romania. For observers without an embassy or consulate in their country, please inform ODIHR in Warsaw (Sylwia Zwolinska or Anna Krzysztofik) as soon as possible.

5. FLIGHT BOOKINGS/ACCOMMODATION

Hotel reservations will be organized for the LTOs by the ODIHR LEOM upon receipt of the online registration form. The LTOs will be met at Bucharest International Airport by an ODIHR LEOM representative upon their arrival and transported to their accommodation.

ODIHR strongly encourages seconding States to make early flight bookings. To ensure operational flexibility, seconding States are advised to book changeable airline tickets.

In respect of in-country travel organized by ODIHR, please note that LTOs are required to complete the standard OSCE Liability Release Form and attach it to the on-line mission registration form by 20 March 2025.

6. COSTS

LTOs will be asked to cover directly their expenses for food and hotel accommodation; these costs may vary depending on personal preferences. However, as an indication of possible costs an LTO may incur, please note that the OSCE Daily Subsistence Allowance (DSA) for February is EUR 237.59 in Bucharest. Costs, DSA included, may be less outside Bucharest. ODIHR will provide each LTO team with a driver and an interpreter.

The security and safety of observers is of the highest priority and will take precedence in the LEOM management, including the deployment plan. Seconding States are required to ensure that their observers adhere to national rules and regulations related to entry to Romania. Seconding States are also responsible for determining the designation of their observers and purchasing any necessary insurance.

LTOs should strictly abide by the ODIHR Observer Code of Conduct. LTOs will receive a security briefing upon arrival and are requested to strictly comply with security instructions and deployment plan prepared by the ODIHR LEOM.

Observers should also familiarize themselves and abide with the Guide on the OSCE Policy against Harassment, Sexual Harassment and Discrimination.

ODIHR reserves the right to refuse any candidates to this observation mission who cannot undertake their activities in an impartial and objective manner and to withdraw accreditation in case of any serious breach of the ODIHR Observer Code of Conduct.
