

YOUNG PROFESSIONALS PROGRAM

THREE INSTITUTIONS.
DEVELOPING LEADERS.
FOR JOINT IMPACT.

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

For 60 years, the Young Professionals Program has attracted some of the brightest young minds to contribute to the World Bank Group's top priorities, from poverty eradication, social development and climate change to the global Covid-19 response and recovery.

On June 1, 2020, the World Bank and IFC merged their respective Young Professionals Programs, and included MIGA, to create one World Bank Group Young Professionals Program (The WBG YPP). The program recruits on behalf of three of our institutions: the World Bank, IFC and MIGA.

Building on the rich legacy of its predecessor programs, The WBG YPP aims to recruit and develop future leaders to collaborate effectively across our institutions on joint WBG solutions to development challenges. We are looking for applicants who display a passion for international development, strong academic credentials, relevant professional experience, and the potential to grow into impactful leadership roles across the World Bank Group.

Young Professionals are recruited from around the world, with preference to nationals of WBG member countries and countries of operations. We welcome all qualified individuals from diverse professional, academic, and cultural backgrounds to apply.

PROGRAM FEATURES

FIELDWORK FOCUS

The WBG YPP offers Young Professionals a unique opportunity to work on the frontlines of international development. Candidates should be willing to relocate to field-based assignments, especially those supporting client countries experiencing Fragility, Conflict and Violence (FCV) and other challenging environments.
